In the shadows and folds is the result of a mental scavenger hunt that I began this past year, to uncover myself and find what is hidden in my crevices.

Without these points of reference I have felt a distancing from myself. I've been left wondering what I feel like.

Julia Mueller

In the hopes of rediscovering my personhood I began to search for pieces within memories. Not fully trusting myself to accurately recall moments, I focused on what was nostalgic and rooted in emotion. Each piece is a collection of moments and feelings revolving around a specific memory or frame of thought. Like a puzzle, they fit together physically and ideologically, contributing pieces to the larger framework which is the memory of a personality. Found fabrics, stenciled text and playful imagery aim to capture these fleeting memories and feelings.
